TENDER FOR SHORT LIST

Results

All Partner of Project AIDA,

Considering that:

- the inclusion in the ranking of candidates is in alphabetical order as there are no rankings of merit;
- approved lists are open and can be updated according to project needs;
- inclusion in the list, of a purely cognitive and non-binding nature, does not entail any right to obtain the professional assignment as with the notice in question there is no selective procedure, nor is the preparation of rankings of merit;
- partners are free to select experts by identifying them from the list of various profiles for the assignment of professional assignments.
- the contracts will comply with the requirements of the laws of the state of the contracting partner and the relevant community legislation, without any obligation of subordination.
- the assignment or service will be motivated and will be regulated by a specific contract, in which the methods, times and fees for carrying out the same will be established. In any case, once the selected expert has been hired by the partner, the remaining Project Partners cannot be held responsible in any way for the legal, economic and financial issues that may arise during the performance of the activity between the expert and partner contract.

Given that:

- on 8 August 2020, the tender was published on the web portals of the project partners for the establishment of an Short List of Experts for the project activities to be carried out within the AIDA project;
- the tender aims to create an Short List of Experts for the identification, from time to time, in relation to the activities and projects to be implemented, the unavailability of internal human resources and the availability of economic resources- financial, technical and specialist figures to whom to entrust any tasks related to the results to be achieved within the AIDA project;
- for registration purposes, applicants had to declare to be in possession of the requirements set out in art. 3 and 4 to the tender and had to submit the application for registration and related attachments as specified in art. 5 of the same tender;
- the existence of the requisites is certified by the experts through self-declaration and the subjects admitted to the list may be asked to provide documentation proving that they possess the requisites declared in the application and the partners reserve the right to verify the veracity of the data indicated in the application participation and related attachments, and to request supporting documents at any time;
- on 3 september 2020 special commission examined all the applications received. A total of 84 applications were received, of which 61 valid and 23 invalid.
